Soft Skills

All the undergraduate students are trained by an external agency on the soft skills needed for their life and profession during their first year under a course called PACE (Personality, Aptitude and Career Enhancement). This comprises of two papers PACE-I and Pace-II each of which has an Online Theory Examination and a viva voce with a passing minimum of 60%

PACE I & PACE II

Guidance for Competitive Examinations

All the Second-year undergraduate students are trained by an external agency on the quantitative aptitude and logical reasoning skills needed to clear the competitive examinations under a course called PACE (Personality, Aptitude and Career Enhancement). This comprises of two papers PACE-III and Pace-IV in the third and the fourth semesters each of which has an Online Theory Examination and a viva voce with a passing minimum of 60%

PACE III, PACE IV

PACE

Career Counselling

For all the final year undergraduate students training is given in their own domains and career guidance by external agencies and also under a course called PACE - V (Personality, Aptitude and Career Enhancement) which has an Online Theory Examination and a viva voce with a passing minimum of 60%.

PACE V