Inauguration:

The Department of English inaugurated the Association, English Literary Club and Lit-Aura on 9th September 2017. Prof. R. Maheshwari, Associate Professor of English, PSGR Krishnammal College for Women was the chief guest. The enthusiastic speech of the guest ignited and enlightened the young minds to think out of box. She motivated the students to set vision and move towards it without distraction. The speaker in her address spoke on the role of extracurricular and co-curricular activities in the shaping of an individual's personality. Prizes were distributed to the students who have won prizes in the literary competitions conducted during the month of July and August. Dr. S. Deena, Vice Principal presided over the programme and Dr. F. Hannah Revathy, Dean, School of Science and Humanities felicitated the gathering.

Inter- Departmental Competitions:

In August, to commemorate the Independence Day a series of competitions like Story Telling, Elocution, Spell Bee and Poetry Writing were conducted for the students of English Literature and also for those from other disciplines. The winners were honoured with prizes.

Inter- Collegiate Competitions:

The English Clubs, ELC & Lit-Aura, coalesced with the Department of English to conduct “Lit-Treat’18-A Feast of Happiness” a one-day inter-collegiate fest, exclusively for students of Literature, on 22 March 2018. Various on and off stage competitions such as Literary Quiz (Shotgun Scholar), Dubs mash (Dare to Dub), Mime (Pantomime) and Skit (Footlights) were conducted in different venues inside the college premises. Nearly, 70 students from colleges across the Coimbatore district participated in the same and had an eventful day. The winners and participants were honoured with prizes and certificates during the Valedictory session which was presided over by Dr. S. Deena, the Vice Principal and Dr. F. Hannah Revathy, Dean, School of Science and Humanities.
