

The Institution engages in Two Best Practices

1. Initiation of Publishing Daily Happenings in the Institution as Daily News.
2. Promotion of Research Culture.

Best Practice - I

INITIATION OF PUBLISHING DAILY HAPPENINGS IN THE INSTITUTION AS DAILY NEWS

Objectives of the Practice:

- To make the stakeholders aware of the daily happenings of the institution
- Creating a web repository of daily activities

The Context

As the institution grows from time to time, the activities of the institution are known by the stakeholders of the institution. The repository also to be created in the institution to record all the events.

The Practice

The department achievements, student's achievements, department activities, Club Activities are communicated through mail to daily news editorial board and the same will be published as Daily News by name "SRCAS Pulse".

Evidence Success

The Repository as SRCAS - PULSE has been released daily which is circulated to the faculty, students community and the same will be displayed in the institution website.

Problems Encountered and Resources Required

Procuring the data is a hilarious task for the team though the initiation is good. The design of the newsletter became another problem. Exclusive designer and higher end system to support for designing are resources required submitted to the higher official and the same was sanctioned.

Best Practice – II

Promotion of Research Culture

Objectives of the Practice

- To inculcate the faculty to involve in more research related activities
- To increase the research credentials of the Institution.

The Context

To improve the performance of the research culture and to bring the research innovations among the faculty and students .

The Practice

The institution provides financial support for the faculty members to publish the papers. The good research is funded with seed money. To promote the research culture in the departments are motivated with financial assistance to conduct conferences and Faculty Development Programmes.

Evidence of Success

The publications in UGC, Scopus, presenting papers in conferences and participating in conclaves has been increasing day by day.

Problems Encountered and Resources Required

To keep up The citations of the institution, originality of research, opportunities for getting funds as a self financing institution is very difficult nowadays.
